Gustav & The Rocket Brothers

New Sci-Fi book series filled with humor, action and suspense.
For children ages 9-12 years old.
Written by Frank Madsen. Illustrated by Sussi Bech.
10 books, each 68 pages in full color. More than 800 illustrations.

Gustav lives in Porridge-Ville with his parents and his little sister. With his best friends from school he has formed The Rocket Brothers. They have a dream: To launch the first rocket built by children into space. But one night a meteor hits the ground just outside of town, weird strangers move into the house next door and there's a new girl in class. Soon Gustav realizes that creatures from outer space have come to his small town ...

Lots of pictures help the reader through the text.

Sniff Mouse

Written by Frank Madsen.
Illustrated by Sussi Bech.
2 books, 36 pages each.

Sniff is the world's greatest detective. At least that's what he thinks of himself and so does Bente, his devoted secretary. Together they solve great mysteries that often have a simple, natural explanation.

The Caterpillar that Disappeared

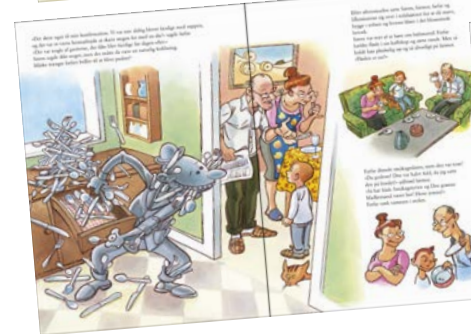

The Moon Thief

Sean and the Bogeymen

Written by Frank Madsen.
Illustrated by Sussi Bech.
36 pages.

Sean's dad is an engineer and he does not believe in bogeymen. So neither does Sean. But his grandparents always blame it on the bogeymen when things go wrong. Sean looks for a natural explanation but what will prevail? Science or superstition?

Kitty with the big balls

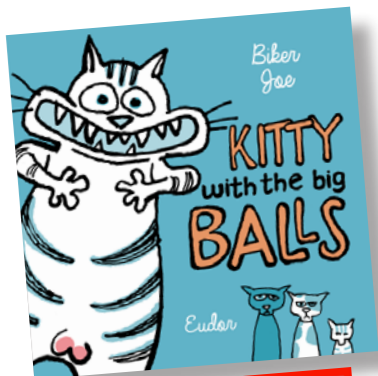

Written by Frank Madsen.

Illustrated by Sussi Bech.
